

NOT FOR PUBLICATION

UNITED STATES BANKRUPTCY COURT
CENTRAL DISTRICT OF CALIFORNIA
LOS ANGELES DIVISION

In re:

NORA MAGDALENA LAVIE,

Alleged Debtor.

Case No. 2:19-bk-19679-RK

Chapter 7

ORDER DENYING PETITIONING
CREDITOR'S "REQUEST FOR TIME" TO FILE AND SERVE AMENDED
INVOLUNTARY CHAPTER 11 PETITION

Pending before the court is the "Request for Time" of Petitioning Creditor Michael Z. Lavie, filed on November 7, 2019, which requests the court to extend time for him to file and serve an amended involuntary bankruptcy petition, for which the deadline was November 8, 2019, 14 days after the date of entry of the order dismissing the involuntary petition on October 25, 2019. The Request for Time is a motion within the meaning of Federal Rule of Bankruptcy Procedure 9013 because it is a request for an order that the court modifies its prior order that Petitioning Creditor has 14 days to amend his petition and relates to the contested matter of the involuntary bankruptcy petition that he filed against Alleged Debtor as she opposed the petition within the meaning of Federal Rule of Bankruptcy Procedure 9014.

The court in its order of October 25, 2019 determined that at the hearing in this

1 case on October 23, 2019, Petitioning Creditor admittedly pleaded an incorrect basis for 2 relief in his involuntary bankruptcy petition, dismissed the petition, but granting leave to 3 Petitioning Creditor to file and serve an amended petition with the correct basis for 4 relief. At the hearing before the court in this case on October 23, 2019, the court
5 specifically denied Petitioning Creditor's request to have more than 14 days time to 6 amend the petition.

7 There is no proof of service of the Request for Time on the opposing party,
8 Alleged Debtor Nora Magdalena Ibarra, formerly Lavie, and thus, it appears that 9 Petitioning Creditor has not served her with the Request for Time. As a matter of due
10 process, Petitioning Creditor should have served the Request for Time on Alleged 11 Debtor because it adversely affects her as he is seeking to keep the involuntary
12 bankruptcy case open against her by the relief sought in the Request for Time. Federal 13 Rules of Bankruptcy Procedure 9013 and 9014 (requiring notice and opportunity for 14 hearing on parties against whom relief is sought).

15 Cause must be shown pursuant to Federal Rule of Bankruptcy Procedure
16 9006(a) in order for the court to extend time to file and serve an amended petition as 17 previously ordered. The grounds stated in the Request for Time are that he wants
18 more time "to save my house," that is, he wants the court to keep the involuntary
19 bankruptcy case in place so that the automatic stay in this case stops a foreclosure by 20 the lender on the property where he resides, but title is in the name of Alleged Debtor,
21 who apparently refuses to sign over the property to him despite a family law court order.
22 In his Request for Time, Petitioning Creditor said that he and Alleged Debtor appeared
23 in family law court on October 24, 2019, but the family law court did not order Alleged 24 Debtor to sign over title to the property. Petitioning Creditor said that he has been 25 approved for a reverse mortgage on the property, but apparently wants this court to 26 extend his time to file and serve an amended petition to keep this case open and have 27 the automatic stay in place to forestall any foreclosure by the lender.
28

